

For immediate release

Strong Travel's Jim Strong and Nancy Strong Named Power Brokers by Travel + Leisure

Travel + Leisure magazine releases the "A List"

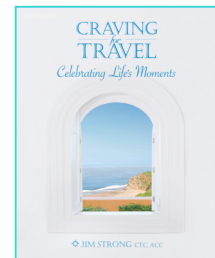

Dallas, Texas, September 17, 2009

Jim Strong and Nancy Strong have been named as two of the Top Ten Super Agents by Travel + Leisure Magazine, in their October issue.

Quoting the Travel + Leisure's "A List" guide in the publication, "We know what you're thinking: with flights and hotels just a click away, it's never been easier to plan your own trip. But a trusted expert can take all the hassle out of travel planning. Travel + Leisure has evaluated thousands of agents to come up with this highly selective list of the best in the business." Jim and Nancy emerge as two of the Top Ten in the USA.

The President of Strong Travel, Jim is a renowned world traveler, knowing the most fascinating destinations imaginable, from the über-luxurious accommodations to quaint farmhouses nestled in picturesque mountains. Jim Strong and his elite team of professionals connect their clients with the best the world has to offer, with unrivaled attention to detail and service.

Coinciding with Strong's latest honor, is the release of his newest book, Craving for Travel – Celebrating Life's Moments, which has been heralded by the Wall Street Journal as a "must read." For more information on the book, please visit www.cravingfortravel.com

This commendation is not a rare occurrence for Strong, as this is his fifth consecutive year to rank in this esteemed circle of honor. The Strong Family partnership has propelled the agency to the forefront of many of their peers providing unparalleled service and attention to detail. The agency is located in Preston Center – Dallas, TX and is a member of the Virtuoso Network.

Contact: Steve Harris, CTA
214-361-0027 office
214-361-0139 fax 1
www.strongtravel.com
www.cravingfortravel.com

For immediate release